

Handout 3 – Resources for Module 6

Service	Website Contact	Description and Support for Binational Migrant Students	Impact on BN Migrant Student
Mexican Teacher Exchange Program	http://www2.ed.gov/admins/tchrqual/learn/binational.html#desc	Teachers from Mexico come to the United States to reinforce knowledge about the history, culture, values, and national traditions of Mexican-origin students who live in the U.S., strengthening their identity and improving their education. U.S. educators go to Mexico to learn first-hand about the Mexican educational system, history, culture, traditions and values.	Mexican Teachers offer direct services to migrant students. U.S. educators learn firsthand about Mexico and its educational system.
Plazas Comunitarias	www.conevyt.org.mx	Different plazas comunitarias include teaching ESL, computer skills and other topics according to student needs. Some plazas offer Mexican certification programs for Out-of-School Youth (OSY) and adults at the elementary, middle school and high school levels.	Programs can create their own plazas comunitarias with the help of Mexican Consulates and the Office of Mexican Education (SEP).
SEP Books	http://diarioeducacion.com/libros-para-primaria-sep-2012-2013/	Free Mexican textbooks for 1 st through 6 th grades.	Teachers can download or request National Mexican textbooks to the Mexican Consulates.
TeleSecundaria	http://www.televisioneducativa.gob.mx/index.php/canales/red-edusat/telesecundaria	Telesecundaria is a system of distance education created by the Mexican government for secondary and high school students.	Teachers and students can view via satellite or online programs related to Biology, Spanish, Math, etc.

Including Binational Migrant Students in CNAs and SDPs

“Handbook For Educators Who Work With Children of Mexico Origin”	http://people.uncw.edu/martinezm/Handbook/html/about.htm	Includes information about the organization of the Mexican educational system, customs and traditions that are part of the school year in most Mexican schools and cultural differences that might hinder school success if not acknowledged	Resources that you can access online to obtain additional information to secure the educational success of binational children
Transfer Document	http://www.mexterior.sep.gob.mx/2_dtemb.htm	The Transfer Document contains academic information on Binational migrant students.	Official report card to facilitate the correct placement in schools, especially on the Mexican side.